133.01 POWERS AND DUTIES GENERALLY.

The City Recorder shall keep the journal of the proceedings of Council, and he shall have charge of and preserve the records of the City. Unless otherwise provided by State law, whenever the Mayor is unable because of illness or absence from the City to perform the duties of his office, and during any vacancy in the office of Mayor, the Recorder shall perform the duties of the Mayor and be invested with all of his power and authority.
